Shri Mirza Kaisar Baeg, counsel for the petitioners.

Shri Gautam Bhaduri, Deputy Advocate General for the State/respondents.

Heard finally.

Petitioner no.1 is the Sarpanch and petitioner no.2 is the Secretary. They were removed by the Sub-Divisional Officer as per the order dated 16.10.2002 (Annexure P-2). Thereafter, they preferred appeal before the Collector Raigarh. The Collector rejected the appeal holding that the Sarpanch and the Secretary both responsible for the irregularities. Learned State Counsel submits that the petitioner has alternative remedy of preferring revision before the Director of Panchayats and this authority has been conferred power under the M.P. Panchayat (Appeal and Revision) Rules 1995. Counsel for the petitioner submits that he be permitted to avail the remedy of revision before the Director of Panchayats.
